The meeting started with the recitation of verses from the Holy Quran. Dr. Mohsin Hassan Khan, The Chair welcomed all the members and highlighted the vision of of The Kohsar University Murree and emphasized to uphold them as guiding principles. He briefed the members about the agenda of the meeting and thereafter took up the agenda items for consideration one by one.

Agenda Item 01:

Approval for the revision of nomenclature of the Department

Chairman moved on the agenda item 01 of the meeting that was to revise nomenclature of the department.

Discussion

The chair initiated the discussion regarding revision in the nomenclature of the department and should be named as “Department of Media and Communication Studies”. The chair emphasized on the recommendation given by National Curriculum Revision Committee (NCRC) 2018 “To have uniformity at all levels among all universities of the country, the departments be named as Department (or Centre or any other suitable name) of Media and Communication Studies”.

Decision

All members unanimously approved the agenda item.

Agenda Item 02:

Approval of the title of Degree Program

The Chair moved on the agenda item 02 of the meeting that was title of Degree Program

Discussion

The chair initiated the discussion on the agenda item, and briefed about the upcoming BS program to be launched by the department. Prof. Dr. Zafar Iqbal pointed out that while giving title to BS Degree Program in the field, we should keep in mind that few organizations/agencies are still accepting broad degree programs and students might face issues if we specify the title of degree. Prof. Dr. Syed Abdul Siraj also highlighted the same issue and advised to give a broad name to the degree program.

Decision

Thus, based on the overall discussion regarding agenda item-02, it was decided by all members that title of the Degree program should be named as BS in Media and Communication Studies.

Agenda Item 03:

Approval of Vision & Mission of the department

The 3rd agenda point of discussion was approval of Vision & Mission of the department

Discussion

The chair explained the vision & mission of the department. Prof. Dr. Syed Abdul Siraj suggested that vision statement should be revised and based on professional, academic and research excellence. Prof. Dr. Zafar Iqbal pointed out that knowledge creation through research is missing in the vision statement. Mateen Haider also advised that research component should be added.

Decision

All members endorsed the comments raised by Prof. Dr. Syed Abdul Siraj and vision statement needs to be revised based on the suggestions.

Agenda Item 04:

Approval of the admission eligibility and degree awarding criteria

The agenda item 04 of the discussion was approval admission eligibility and degree awarding criteria.

Discussion

All of the members unanimously endorsed the eligibility criteria for admission is already set by the university i.e for admission in BS, applicant should have at least 45% marks in FA/FSc/ICS or equivalent. Similarly, all members were agreed to the HEC criteria for awarding BS degree i.e minimum 124 credit hours and maximum 136 credit hours in a semester system.

Decision:

It was decided by all members that for admission, F. A/F.Sc/ICS or equivalent with Minimum 45% Marks is required whereas for awarding of BS degree 124-136 credit hours in a semester system along with internship (non-credit) must be completed.

Agenda Item 05:

Approval of the Scheme of Study for BS Program

Discussion

The chair tabled the agenda item 05, the Scheme of Study for BS Program The list was assessed, evaluated and discussed with special focus in academic and professional experience in the field of Media and Communication Studies. The experts shared the following suggestions;

1. Contents of English IV should be replaced with Communication Skills.
2. Fundamentals of News Reporting and Editing should be replaced with News Reporting and Writing.
3. Digital Media and Society should be revised as Media and Society

4. Theories of Mass Communication should be revised as Communication Theories.
5. Internship should not be of 3 credit hours, it should be a compulsory requirement, but of zero credit and must be completed any time after 6th Semester.
6. Research Thesis/Project should not be included in the list of major courses rather included as 4th elective course under all specializations.
7. Strategic Communication and Cinematography should be included.

When it comes to Specializations, the experts came out with following suggestions;

1. Print and Electronic media should be named as separate specializations with specialized courses.
2. Film and Theatre studies should be revised as Film and Media Production as they pointed out that production side seems ignored in this SOS.
3. Screen writing, and production related courses should be included under Film and Media Production specialization.

Decision:

All members approved the recommended suggestions.

Agenda Item 06:

Approval for the Logo of the department

Discussion:

The Chair proposed three different logos for the department. Experts pointed out that department's logo should represent university logo and in this case department name could be written on the top of university logo.

Decision

All members approved the recommended suggestions.

At the end, Chair expressed his sincere gratitude to all the respected members of BOS for being there and for sharing valuable suggestions to strengthen the department. He adjourned the meeting with a strong commitment towards significant contributions in the field of media and communication studies from the platform of Kohsar University Murree.

Department of Mass Communication and Media Studies

The world we live in is dominated by media in many forms. From entertainment and culture, through news and social media, to politics and promotion; the media shapes our understanding of what we know and what we consume. Whether one wants to work in one of these areas, to research their impact or simply to understand more and more about the relationship of the audience with the media itself. The world of communication is fascinating, fast-paced, and ever-changing. It is widely known that one of the skills that world leaders value the most is effective communication; an eloquent, confident and well-informed graduate with strong oral, written and visual communication skills will enter the job market ready to shine in many roles, industries and media outlets. This means that professionals in the industry need to be adaptable and stay up to date with the latest trends and developments.

In today's media landscape, it's increasingly important for communication and media professionals to have a range of skills and be able to work across different platforms and mediums. This is because the way people consume and interact with media has changed dramatically in recent years, particularly with the rise of digital and social media platforms. The Department of Media and Communication Studies at Kohsar University plays an important role in educating students and professionals to navigate this new digital media and information ecosystem, and as well providing opportunities to be creative and innovative in the field. At MCS, students can gain a comprehensive understanding of the digital media and information landscape, from the technical aspects of creating and distributing content to the social, cultural, and economic impact of digital media on society.

VISION

To become leading Pakistani media institute driving excellence in producing expert communicators, media entrepreneurs and knowledge creators, in a rapidly changing field.

MISSION

To prepare a class media entrepreneurs and professionals with ingrained human values and commitment to expand the frontiers of knowledge for the advancement of society. We at MCS, inspire, empower and develop students in pursuit of professional careers in media. Through innovative curriculum design, service learning, mentorship, research collaboration and practical experience, our students gain creativity, critical thinking, a deep and life-long commitment to ethical and civically productive communication, competitive and marketable skills.

BS Media and Communication Studies

Media and Communication Studies is a rapidly growing field, and there is a high demand for well-skilled and specialized practitioners and journalists. Media institutions, government bodies, and a variety of organizations are looking for well-qualified communicators to connect with their audiences and help them achieve their desired goals.

Our (BS) program in Communication and Media Studies provide students with up to date knowledge and skills they need to enter the professional world of the media industry.

Our program is designed to meet the current and future needs of students, organizations, and businesses in Pakistan and other countries. Our curriculum is kept up to date with the latest trends and developments in the field, and that it should be tailored to provide students with the knowledge and skills they need to succeed in the local and international job market. They will also be offered hands-on experience and opportunities to work on real-world projects, which will help them develop the practical skills they need to succeed in the industry. Overall, BS in Media and Communication Studies program prepares students for a variety of careers in the media industry and help them develop the skills and knowledge they need to make an impact in their chosen field.

Program Objectives

The program will enable students to:

- Make our students media entrepreneurs who can work independently.
- Draw on a rigorous combination of theory, analysis, and hands-on digital work in development of creative ideas in digital media.
- Prepare students for careers that combine social media strategies with business objectives and marketing communications.
- Demonstrate how the media work, and how communication can function as a means of control at societal, organizational and group level.
- Highlight the role and duties of future journalists and to make them prepare for the challenges ahead with special emphasis on ethical and social values in the field of Journalism.
- Increase interaction among academic, industry and government organizations.

The Program Outcomes

To meet the program objectives, the department will contribute in producing graduates who will be able to demonstrate the following measurable outcomes:

1. Demonstrate proficiency in the process and practice of media writing. Graduates should demonstrate proficiency as a writer in various media writing genres, including both writing for and about the media.
2. Create and critique media content. Graduates should be able to create and critique media content based on appropriate production, design, and aesthetic principles. Graduates should be able to produce media messages appropriate to the audience, purpose, and context.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of mass media communication values including timeliness, impact, and storytelling ability as portrayed in written, visual and spoken formats.
4. Start up their own business as digital media entrepreneurs.

5. Produce work that contributes knowledge and expresses creativity with competent and effective communication skills in media across written, oral, visual, and interactive forms.
6. Influence public discourse (explain communication's role in civic life, identify challenges facing communities, frames issues from a communication perspective, evaluates issues, uses communication to respond to issues, advocates a course of action, and empowers individuals to promote human rights, dignity, and freedom).
